

Uniforms

- All athletes should be able to participate in a uniform in which they feel comfortable. If gendered uniforms are necessary, then MA's should:
 - allow athletes to choose which uniform they would prefer to wear
 - ensure that appropriate sizes are available for all participants
 - design options that are suitable for different body types and shapes

